HOMICIDE.

Altercation at Easton-Dr. Craig Sh and Mortally Wounded.

Officers in Pursuit of the Guilty

A courier from Easton came to the city last night, about eleven o'clock, with the intelligence that an altercation had taken piace a few hours previous, in which Dr. T. C. Craig, a well known resident of that place, had been shot and mortally wounded.

A man named White, who herded Texan It is very dangerous, too, to pass suddenly from a dark into a strong flood of light. The cattle in that region, did the shooting. He fired three shots, only one taking effect, that one penetrating Dr. Craig's breast.

It seems that Dr. Craig suspected White of stealing his watch, and made his suspicions public. When White heard of the accusation he attacked Craig. The officers were searching the city last night for White, who fled from Easton immediately after the Saplewood Examination.

The annual examination of this excellent school has been of a most satisfactory character. The first class we heard examined was the first Arithmetic, Mrs. Leeper-the young ludies showed good knowledge of Interest, discount, taxes and insurance, and with no parrot-like smattering.

The school room is much beautified since last year, the walls being tinted a delicate lavender. A fine chromo, the gift of W. A.

Mrs. Leeper's Primary Geography was an interesting class and understood their subject well. We commend the examination of to-day to all who may be able to visit the school. This Institution claims and should receive the best patronage, and with but small effort from its increasing patrons it may become the College of the West and bring hundreds of young ladies here to be educated. Too much praise cannot be awarded to the principal, who has been so indefatigable or to the Trustees who have most unselfishly laborel for les success. A SPECTATOR.

Having enlarged my business this season by leasing the adjoining Store, No. 222, I am enabled to bring Prices down on a level with the times. In lating the prices I have been guided by the scarcity of money matters, and the extreme low prices the farmers receive for their products. Prices are reduced to about twenty per cent. lower than they were one year ago.

Manufacturers with whom I am dealing, have, according to the times, generously dated my bills ahead as far as May 1st. This enables me to discount my bills at a net profit of 6 per cent. Not knowing at what prices TOM, DICK or HARRY sell their goods, I am not able to say that I sell my goods at 10 per cent. less than other houses, for I do STRICTLY TO MY OWN BUSINESS ONLY.

I expect to take the experience in the past for my guide in the future, that: "Honesty is the Best Policy."
